

I am writing to request that the FCC NOT implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. The Indiana Telephone Privacy law has been very effective in reducing unwanted calls from solicitors. I feel that Indiana's current law should remain in full force.